Academic Work Experience and Training

Since 01/2021	Editorial Assistant Politics of the Low Countries I am responsible for swift communication between authors and the editors while maintaining a double-blind peer review process. I further administer the process from submission, peer-review, and decision on Editorial Manager (EM), a highly configurable workflow management system.
08/2021	QStep Centre Summer School University of Glasgow Social Network Analysis
06/2018 – 07/2018	ICPSR Summer Program in Quantitative Methods of Social Research University of Michigan Completed modules: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Maximum Likelihood Estimation I: Generalized Linear Models (Grade: A)- Network Analysis I: Introduction (Grade: A)
2017 – 2018	The Olive Tree Initiative University of Glasgow I took part in an extracurricular, experiential learning program of conflict studies with focus on the Israel-Palestine conflict which included a 17-day fieldtrip to the region as a student diplomat. The program emphasized academic research, critical thinking, analysing narrative perspectives, group briefings, and exposure to challenging environments and situations.
08/2017 - 12/2017	QStep Intern University of Glasgow I assisted in a research project within the School of Education which inquired how class relates to higher education outcomes and the willingness to take on quantitative methods training. My role was to help design and carry out a survey, execute data cleaning, and offer a preliminary descriptive data analysis.

Trustee and Researcher

Global Minorities Alliance (GMA), Glasgow

I co-founded GMA in 2013 and became one of its trustees in 2014 upon its registration as a charity. Since then I am responsible for the general oversight of the charity as well as for the essential research work that underpins GMA's advocacy work for minorities worldwide.

In 2016, I was part of a fact finding mission in Thailand and subsequently co-authored a report on the situation of urban refugees from Pakistan in Thailand's capital Bangkok.
